WILSON ASKS RECONSIDERATION OF SHOPMEN'S STRIKE VOTE

Forceful Statements From White House Warn That Worse Disaster Than War Threatens If Public Does Not Co-operate In Keeping Railways Going—Production Needed, Not Wages—Shopmen Offered Small Raise—Living Costs Now At Peak.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Efforts of railroad employees throughout the country to increase railroad wages generally met with an abrupt halt Monday when President Wilson took a determined stand against general increases at this time.

In acting upon the demands of the six national unions of railroad shopmen, involving increases approximating $165,000,000 a year, the president issued two direct appeals, one to the workmen involved and another to the American people, to keep a cool head and a steady hand in a time of national crisis and peril.

The two statements probably are the most forceful that have come from the White House since the days of Theodore Roosevelt. President Wilson urged the most thoughtful consideration of a grave national situation and declared that "demands unwisely made and passionately insisted upon at this time menace the peace and prosperity of the country as nothing else could."

Small Advances Granted.
Increases of 4 cents an hour are granted to the shopmen for all crafts with the exception of car repairs and car inspectors, some of whom are increased 5 cents an hour. The demands were for increases ranging from 17 to 27 cents an hour.

The president's action, supported in full the recommendations of Director-General Hines.

Strike Vote Nearly Unanimous.

The American Federation of Labor is just completing the tabulation of a strike vote among the 450,000 or more men involved. The vote was upon the question of whether the men could accept the solution of the wage demand suggested by Director-General Hines' settlement by a commission to be created by Congress—or whether they should strike to enforce their original demands. The vote is nearly unanimous for strike unless the demands are met. Another vote is regarded as likely. It would take upward of a month to take and count the vote by mail.

President Wilson's statement to the American people follows:

"My Fellow Citizens: A situation has arisen in connection with the administration of the railways which is of such general significance that I think it my duty to make a public statement concerning it in order that the whole country may know what is involved.

Situation as to Shopmen.

The railroad shopmen have demanded a large increase in wages. They are now receiving 58, 63 and 65 cents per hour. They demand 65 cents per hour. This demand has been given careful and serious consideration by the board which was constituted by the railroad administration to adjust questions of wages. A board consisting of an equal number of representatives of employees and of the operating managers of the railroad companies. This board has been unable to come to an agreement, and it has therefore devolved upon the director-general of railroads and myself to act upon the merits of the case.

The shopmen urge that they are entitled to higher wages because of the higher wages for the present received by men doing similar work in shipyards, navy yards and arsenals, as well as in a number of private industries. But I concur with the director-general in thinking that there is no real basis of comparison between the settled employment of skilled mechanics by the railroads under living conditions as various as the location and surroundings of the railway shops themselves and the fluctuating employment afforded in industries exceptionally and temporarily stimulated by the war and located almost without exception in industrial centers where the cost of living is highest.

Living Costs at Highest.

The substantial argument which the shopmen urge is the very serious increase in the cost of living. This is a very potent argument indeed. But the fact is that the cost of living has certainly reached its peak and will probably be lowered by the efforts which are now being made being concerned and carried out. It will certainly be lowered as soon as there are settled conditions of production and of commerce that is so upon as the treaty of Versailles is ratified and in operations and merchants, manufacturers, farmers, miners all have a certain basis of calculation as to what their business will be and what the conditions will be under which it must be conducted. The demands of the shopmen, therefore, and all similar demands are in effect bids that we make increases in wages, which are likely to be permanent, in order to meet a temporary situation which will have no effect upon the cost of living for a limited time.

Increases in wages will, moreover, certainly result in still further increasing the cost of production, and therefore the cost of living, and we should only have to go through the same process again. Any substantial increase of wages in leading lines of industry at this time would utterly crush the general campaign which the government is waging with energy, vigor and substantial hope of success to reduce the high cost of living. And the increases in the cost of transportation which would necessarily result from increases in the wages of railway employees would more certainly and more immediately have effect than any other enhanced wage costs. Only by keeping the cost of production on its present level, by increasing production and by rigid economy and saving on the part of the people can we hope for large decreases in the burdensome cost of living which now weighs us down.

Should Await Normal Conditions.

The director-general of railroads and I have felt that a peculiar responsibility rests upon us, because in determining this question we are not settling the balance sheets of corporations merely; we are in effect determining the burden of taxation which must fall upon the people of the country in general. We are acting, not for private corporations, but in the name of the government and the public, and must assess our responsibility accordingly, for it is neither wise nor feasible to take care of increases in the wages of railroad employees at this time by increases in freight rates.

It is impossible at this time, until peace has come and normal conditions are restored, to estimate what the earning capacity of the railroads will be when ordinary conditions return. There is no certain basis, therefore, for calculating what increases of freight rates should be, and it is necessary for the time being at any rate to take care of all increases in the wages of railway employees through appropriations from the public treasury.

In such circumstances it seems clear to me, and I believe will seem clear to every thoughtful American, including the shopmen themselves, that they have taken second thought, and to have taken earners of every kind that we ought to postpone questions of this sort until normal conditions come again and we have the opportunity for certain calculation as to the relation between wages and the cost of living. It is the duty of every citizen of the country to insist upon a truce in such contests until intelligent settlements can be made, and made by peaceful and effective common counsel.

I appeal to my fellow citizens of every employment to co-operate in insisting upon and maintaining such a truce, and to co-operate also in sustaining the government in what I conceive to be the only course, which conscientious public servants can pursue. Demands unwisely made and passionately insisted upon at this time menace the peace and prosperity of the country as nothing else could, and thus contribute to bring about the very results which such demands are intended to remedy.

Justice, Not Increases.

The wages of other railroad employees are based upon the rule that they are to receive for eight hours work the same pay they received for the longer workday that was the usual standard of the pre-war period. This claim is, I am told, well founded, and I concur in the conclusion of the director-general that the shopmen ought to be given the additional 4 cents an hour which the readjustment asked for will justify. There are certain other adjustments also pointed out in the report of the director-general which ought in fairness to be made and which will be made.

Let me add also that the position which the government must in consequence take against general increases in wage levels while the present exceptional and temporary circumstances exist all of course not preclude the railroad administration from giving prompt and careful consideration to any claims that may be made by other classes of employees for readjustments believed to be proper to secure impartial treatment for all who work in the railway service.

To the Shopmen.

The statement to the representatives of the shopmen: "Gentlemen: I request that you lay this critical matter before the men in a new light. The vote they have taken was upon the question whether they should insist upon the wage increase they were asking or consent to the submission of their claims to a new tribunal, to be constituted by new legislation. That question no longer has any life in it. Such legislation is not now in contemplation. I request that you ask the men to reconsider the whole matter in view of the following considerations, to which I ask their thoughtful attention as Americans, and which I hope will be permitted to take place.

Food Going to N. Y. Schools.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Aug. 25.—Progress was made today in New York's fight against the high cost of foodstuffs. Food sales were being conducted in public schools all over the city, and as a result of official action, it appeared certain that the threatened increase in the cost of milk will not be permitted to take place.

WELCOME HOME DAY IS OCT. 1 IN KINGSTON

That Day All the Boys of Kingston and Ulster County Who Have Returned Since April Celebration Will Be Guest—Plans for Royal Welcome.

Wednesday, October 1, is Welcome Home Day in Kingston and Ulster county. This date was definitely decided upon Monday evening at a meeting of the committee which has been in charge of all of the previous demonstrations. Under present plans is day is to be a county and city welcome home celebration for all the boys from any part of the city or county who did not participate in the last welcome home demonstration on April 1. Those who participated in April will be asked to turn out and parade.

Destroyer Tucker Coming.

Mayor Canfield presided at the session last evening. The mayor read a letter from Lieutenant Commander J. C. Byrnes, of the U. S. S. Tucker, stating that he would be extended to visit Kingston, and that he would endeavor to be here on welcome home day, October 1. He closed stating that he would inform the mayor later as soon as a definite date is fixed for the arrival of his destroyer here.

Big Parade and Spread.

Present plans for welcome home day include a big parade forming a loop around the city and ending at Forsyth Park, where it will be disbanded, while the boys who have returned home since the last celebration will be the guests of the city and county at a "spread" in Forsyth Park. The committee is undecided as yet whether it will be in the nature of a barbecue, a clam bake or a dinner, and that point will be settled shortly by the parade and entertainment committee, of which Captain Everett Fowler is chairman.

Committees Appointed.

At the meeting Monday, Captain Fowler, who served as chairman of the parade and entertainment committee, at the Welcome Home Day in April, was appointed chairman of the same committee, and the other members are the same who served in April. They are D. G. Atkins, Morris Block, George Burgevin, Walter P. Grand, Aaron Cohen, C. V. A. Decker, William Dugan, William M. Davis, Charles Finn, Vincent A. Gorman, O. R. Hiltz, William R. Harrison, Secretary Hudson of the Chamber of Commerce, John B. Kearney, N. D. J. Murphy, Dr. Mark O'Meara, Al. Roddie, V. B. Van Wageningen, William H. Van Slyke, Alderman Van Valkenburgh, George Washburn, and Chief of Police J. Allan Wood.

John D. Schoonmaker was appointed chairman of the county committee with power to appoint the other members of his committee.

Edward Coykendall heads the finance committee and will appoint the other members of the committee.

Major James H. Everett heads the reception committee and will appoint the other members of the committee.

William C. Kingman is chairman of the publicity committee with power to appoint the other members.

Ralph Cohen is chairman of the decorating committee and will appoint the other members of his committee.

Joseph Drake heads the New York city committee.

Old Home Day.

The committee also decided to extend an invitation through the New York city committee to the New York County Society in New York city to make Welcome Home Day in October, a Home Coming Day for the society, which is planning to come up to Kingston later on.

Unveil Honor Tablet.

The Kingston Industrial Workers' Association, which meets this evening, will be invited to participate in the honor tablet unveiling at that time. Mayor Canfield, John E. Malar and Captain Everett Fowler were appointed a committee to meet with the Industrial Workers, this evening and extend the invitation.

Who Day is For.

Welcome home day is principally set aside for all those in the service who have returned home since the celebration in April. At that time all the boys who were home were entertained at a dinner at the state armory. It is not planned to give the boys who were not home in time to participate in the state armory festivities a barbecue, clam bake or dinner in Forsyth Park.

The boys in the service who returned home prior to the celebration in April, and who took part then, will be invited to turn out and welcome home those who have since returned.

In order to complete plans the committee adjourned to Tuesday evening, September 2, at which time all the subcommittees are expected to report.

FRUIT DEALERS HERE FOUND TO BE GOUGING

Mr. Shafer Puts Halt To Selling Peaches at Profit of $3.30 Per Basket—Sugar Dealers Only Not Exempt—Names Sent To Washington.

William C. Shafer, food administrator for Ulster county, is keeping a close watch on dealers in food supplies for profiteers. He has discovered no hoarders to any extent in this city, but has learned of a few who have stored away a few pounds of sugar, and they are being watched to see that they do not get any more until what they have is used up. Last week Mr. Shafer made a tour of the city and found several fruit dealers selling peaches at from 18 to 25 cents a quart, retailing at least 20 quarts out of a 14 quart basket the way the peaches were piled up in the quart baskets or carriers. At an average of 20 cents the quart this brought in to the fruit seller $4 for the 14 quart basket. He learned from the dealers where they had purchased the peaches, jumped into his automobile and rode to Marlborough, Highland, Esopus and other places, and ascertained the Kingston fruit dealers had paid from 70 to 75 cents per basket for the fruit. Hurrying back to town, Mr. Shafer made a second call on the profiteers and informed them that they must stop immediately selling the peaches at a profit of $3.30 a basket. That while he could impose a fine of $500 on each profiteer and close up their shops he would not do so; but however he would send their names and a statement of what they had been doing to Washington, and let the government penalize them. Retail dealers in tomatoes, who are selling by the quart for 10 cents a quart for which they pay from 40 to 70 cents a basket of 14 quarts are making over 100 per cent profit and under the national food administration are liable to pay a heavy fine. There are said to be a few profiteers in potatoes in this city and they are also being watched.

Play Centers Close Saturday

Except McVey's Field and Forsyth Park, which will remain open in charge of directors until Saturday, September 6.

All of the city's play centers, with the exception of McVey's Field and Forsyth Park, will close Saturday afternoon of this week. The two big playgrounds will remain open in charge of directors until Saturday afternoon, September 6. This announcement was made by A. W. Buley, director of playground recreation, this morning.

He also stated that all of the playground apparatus would remain on the grounds until October 15.

During the month of July 65,000 visitors were present at the various play centers in the city. These figures do not include the number of those using the apparatus at Kingston Point Park where no count was kept.

The playground season this year has been exceptionally good, and great credit is due Mr. Buley and his efficient corps of assistants.

Twilight League Closes Friday

When The Tigers Play the Y. M. C.

The final game of the league is staged for Thursday evening at McVey's Field when the U. & D. and the All Stars will clash. Two umpires will be furnished for this game. The U. & D. leads the league and the All Stars will have to win every game they play this week in order to tie the leaders.

Wednesday night the Tigers and the Y. M. C. A. will play at McVey's Field, instead of Thursday night, as word was sent to the managers of the team in error by the board of managers.

Tonight the Greenbacks play the U. & D. at McVey's Field, while the Y. M. C. A. play the All Stars at Forsyth Park.

Wednesday night the Greenbacks play the Independents at Forsyth Park, and the Y. M. C. A. at McVey's Field.

Garage To Inspect.

State Highway Commissioner

Greene, accompanied by Roy S. Folger, his secretary, will leave Albany tonight for an inspection trip of the Delaware county roads.

SHOPMEN REFUSE HINES'S OFFER

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Aug. 25.—The committee of 100, representing the railway shopmen, this afternoon informed Railway Director Hines that it could not accept as a basis of settlement the four cent an hour increase offered by the railway administration and announced by President Wilson.

PLANES FLY BY KINGSTON POINT

At least six airplanes participating in the 1,042 mile international air derby between New York city and Toronto, Canada, for the Hotel Commodore air stakes of $10,000, flew by Kingston Point Park this morning. Under the conditions of the race the flyers must fly from Toronto, to Mineola, Long Island, and return, or start from the flying field and fly to Toronto and return.

Monday and today twelve left Toronto, and twenty-seven left Mineola. Of the number taking part in the race twenty-eight of the planes are flown by Americans. Judging from the fact that only six were counted this morning flying by Kingston Point it is evident that not all the flyers are sticking close to the river route.

None of the flyers have developed motor trouble necessitating their landing on the Proer farm on Albany avenue extension at the time this was written.

SENATE REPUBLICANS STRIKE U. S. OUT OF TREATY COMMISSIONS

Foreign Relations Committee Agree on Sweeping Amendments to Versailles Pact—Designed to Avoid Entangling Complications and Will Start Bitter Fight.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Aug. 26.—By a straight party vote of 9 to 7, the Republicans in control of the senate foreign relations committee agreed today to amend textually, the treaty of Versailles, on a sweeping scale, so as to eliminate representation by the United States on almost all of the commissions created by the treaty.

They decided to pass over the league of nations, and to leave the representation commission untouched for the time being, but agreed to strike out the words "and associated powers," as including the United States, from some fifty odd places in the document where the duties and powers of the various commissions were specified or described.

Washington, Aug. 26.—By a straight party vote of 9 to 7, Senator

McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota being absent, the senate foreign relations committee today adopted a textual amendment to the treaty of Versailles which provides for the elimination of the United States from the German-Belgian frontier commission.

The amendment was one of the 23 sponsored by Senator Fall, Republican, of New Mexico, all of which provided for the striking out of textual changes of American representation on various commissions created by the treaty.

Senator Fall argued that the commissions were to deal with domestic or international questions affecting European nations, and that the United States would be involved in "entangling, foreign complications" if it were to be represented.

The nine Republican members, with the exception of McCumber, voted solidly for, and the seven Democratic members against the amendment.

PLUMB, COOMBS AND SCHROEDER NECK AND NECK IN BIG AIR RACE

Plumb, First to Reach Toronto From Mineola, on Way Back; Other Two Returning to Toronto: Thousands See Streams of Planes Halt Up-State.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 26.—The great New York-Toronto aerial derby this afternoon developed into a thrilling neck and neck race between Lieutenant M. J. Plumb, Sergeant G. R. Coombs and Major R. M. Schroeder. Lieutenant Plumb, who reached Toronto from Mineola at 11:45, started on the return flight 15 minutes later, arriving in Buffalo at 12:30. Meanwhile Coombs and Schroeder, who had arrived at Mineola last night, were doubling back on their trucks to the Canadian city as fast as their powerful planes could carry them.

Toronto, Ont., Canada, Aug. 26.—Lieutenant M. J. Plumb, flying in a De Havilland-1 plane, was the first of the aviators in the New York-Toronto air race, to reach this city from Mineola, N. Y. He arrived at the Leaside aerodrome at 11:45 o'clock. Lieutenant Plumb spent the night at Syracuse, leaving there at 8:41 o'clock on the final leg of the first half of the 1,042 mile race.

Roosevelt Field, Mineola, L. I. At 5:26.—The New York-Toronto air race—America's greatest aerial derby—was resumed this morning under much better weather conditions than prevailed on the first day of the contest and new planes had left for the Canadian city before 9:20 o'clock. The air men who were first to start were:

Lieutenant Philip McVie, in a Caproni, at 8:50 o'clock.

Lieutenant Roullet in a De Havilland-1, at 8:55 o'clock.

Lieutenant Honsinger, in a De Havilland-1, at 9:03 o'clock.

Captain C. B. Reynolds in a De Havilland-1, at 9:04 o'clock.

Lieutenant Ross Kilpatrick, in a De Havilland-1, at 9:10 o'clock.

Lieutenant Colonel William C. Barker, U. S. A., who left Toronto in a captured German Fokker machine, arrived at 9:20 o'clock, being the fourth of the aviators starting from Toronto to reach here.

Lieut. Col. Barker carried a box of Canadian mail which was immediately transferred to a machine which left for Washington. Contrary to reports Lieutenant Colonel Barker did not carry a message from the Prince of Wales for President Wilson. Colonel Barker left Albany early this morning, having arrived there from Toronto last night.

Sergeant G. R. Coombs, who won the first leg of the Toronto-Mineola trip, and Major R. M. Schroeder, who was second, got away on their return journey even faster than they won the 1,042 mile contest.

Sergeant Coombs is using an HO-9 machine equipped with a 400 horsepower motor. He took the air at 9:21 o'clock. He was delayed a few minutes by the bursting of a tire on one of the shock of his machine.

Just before Coombs started, a member of the aviators who had left Canada yesterday, arrived at the Roosevelt Field, bringing the number of arrivals from Toronto up to six.

They were Lieutenant P. H. Logan, who left at 9:24 and Earl Acosta, who reached the field at 9:27.

Both men quickly overhauled their machines and started on the return journey. Logan landed only 15 minutes later. Acosta waited until 10 o'clock before he succeeded and drove northward through the clouds.

Logan's De Havilland developed motor trouble on the southern trip and he was forced to land at Poughkeepsie.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Thousands of spectators in the vicinity of the Curtiss flying field on the Niagara Falls boulevard today, for the purpose of witnessing the arrivals and departures of the airplanes which are participating in the New York-Toronto race for the Commodore Hotel trophy, R. L. Williams, representing the American Flying Association, is at the field with a corps of assistants. Pathfinder Jones, who had a difficult time negotiating the trip last evening, said today that he expected the aviators would encounter much trouble today because of the strong winds.

Lieutenant Plumb, who left Toronto on his return flight, at 11:52 o'clock, arrived in Buffalo at 12:30. A. Midkins arrived from Syracuse at 12:13 and Major J. W. Simmons, who left Syracuse at 10:53 reached Buffalo at 12:55.

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Ten planes got away on the third leg of the great international air derby this morning, all of them going west. Of the ten, one was forced to turn back. This was the machine of Captain Brown. The radiator was leaking.

Captain Harry Smith, who missed landing at Rhea field here last night and came down in a field eight miles away got away this morning. Captain Donaldson, bound west, is held up at Onondaga, 24 miles from here. A crank shaft in his plane is smashed. Four minutes arrived from Albany this morning. The men reported stiff winds and extremely low temperature. Lieutenant Colonel Hartney was the first in from Albany this morning. He made the distance in 32 minutes.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Fourteen flyers in the Toronto-New York air race left Albany field this morning. Two, Lieutenant Colonel Barker, No. 50, and O. S. Palmer, No. 52, were first in the air. They left for New York at 7:25 and 7:41. Colonel Hartney, No. 2, who started from here for Syracuse yesterday afternoon, returned to the field after being eleven minutes in the air and resumed his flight up state this morning at 7:13.

Other pilots who left here for Syracuse this morning were: Lieutenant Chandler, No. 14, at 6:57; Lieutenant Cols. No. 26, at 6:58; Captain Steinbock, No. 39, at 7:09; Colonel Archie Miller, No. 3, at 7:12; L. E. Bertie, No. 35, at 7:22; Captain Gipek, No. 32, at 7:54; Major Dickinson, No. 13, at 7:58.

Lieutenant Logan is No. 4 and Lieutenant Adams is No. 42, who reached here last night, left shortly after 9 o'clock and returned to Mineola as a result of smash-ups. It is expected they will make a new start. Lieutenant Weisenborn also returned to Mineola, but is not likely to resume his flight, because of smashing his machine in the take-off this morning.

THE WAR AND THE RACES.

No doubt the Springfield Republican points straight to one of the chief causes of race friction and mob violence in this country since the world war when it says that "The war will have a profound effect upon the relations between the white and colored races is generally acknowledged by students of this group of problems. The effects will not be felt in America alone. Great Britain, the United States and France all employed colored troops in the war zones. Among the French people there was an absence of social inequality as between races which our negro soldiers especially were quick to observe, in comparison with the social condition at home. They have come back with self-confidence and more racial pride. The reactions of such a state of mind will be felt from one end of the country to the other."

If we recognize this greater self-confidence and increased racial pride of returning negro soldiers on the one hand, and on the other hand, no change in the "social conditions at home," race prejudice among the whites remaining as marked as ever, much light may be thrown upon the origin of the recent race rioting in Washington, Chicago and elsewhere. Fortunately the reports from the South, to which the bulk of the drafted negro men returned, have been mostly encouraging. A South Carolina correspondent, for example, reports no serious race conflict in his state since the war. He admits that it was expected that the authorities were on their guard, but says that so far there has been little friction and adds that "most of the returned negro soldiers are bearing themselves very well."

THE 141.

New York has or had its Four Hundred. The United States has its One Hundred and Forty-One, a circle harder to get into as well as more limited. Millionaires were once distinguished persons, but the mere millionaire has become too common in these days. To have real money-distinction now one must have enough millions to derive therefrom a yearly income of one million dollars or more, and there are just 141 persons in this country so fortunate—or unfortunate, as you will. In addition to the super-eminent 141 noted, the records show 315 incomes between $500,000 and $1,000,000; 555 between $500,000 and $500,000; 2,347 between $150,000 and $500,000; and 3,392 between $100,000 and $150,000. But the possessors of these, though millionaires, are only "clubbers" as yet, still without the charmed circle of the 141 elect.

The incomes of these 6,523 lesser millionaires added to the incomes of the 141 great millionaires no doubt foot up to pretty sizable sum. But the New York Sun, possibly fearing that the contemplation of such fabulous wealth in a few hands would cause too many thirsty Bolshevik mouths to run water, makes haste to figure out that if the total of these incomes were distributed among the whole population it would give everybody only about four cents a day. This calls to mind the story of the Rothschild who had a fortune of exactly as many million francs as France had million persons and who humbly made a gift of one franc to a protesting socialist as the latter's rightful individual share in case of the equal distribution that was heatedly demanded.

HORRORS AT THE SHORE.

Many persons who have looked with more or less disrelish upon seashore sights at the bathing hour this summer will find at least a limited sympathy with the following protest which Mrs. H. B. Harrison of Washington has filed with the "Open Censor" at Atlantic City: "The way we are allowed to parade the beach makes them repulsive. The girls of all have curves and attractions and all disgusting when they are paraded to come out on the beach in their bathing suits. Why can't you something about the awful look of a woman who parades around in bathing suit, but a little scrap of a bathing suit."

which falls utterly to co-er their unsightly bodies? And their limbs are simply awful, full of knobs, and bodes, most are are bowlegged? Could anything be more unattractive? The men, not the girls, should be compelled to wear stockings; also something to cover up their armpits and chests. Nobody wants to see them, and they only clutter up good-looking scenery."

Every sensitive eye must be aware of the horrors of a crowded beach at the bathing hour, but Mrs. Harrison makes the mistake of lumping both the men and women in but two classes. The bathers of both sexes include young and middle-aged, all weights and all shapes. All the men are not "bay-windowed" or bowlegged and hairy; no few of the younger ones are slender and straight enough not to offend the critical eye. The women are not all young and shapely, and a girl must be pretty indeed to survive the effects of sunburn. So far as personal profligacy is concerned, female or male, the American sea beach at the bathing hour is not an edifying spectacle.

WITH JOHN BURROUGHS.

The Noted Naturalist At a Beaver Dam.

"It was hard to keep up with Mr. Burroughs of that ramble through the woods," writes Franklin D. Elmer in the September Boy's Life. "He was gay and lighted hearted as a lad. His eye was keen. His ear recorded every faintest bird-note. His step was firm. He jumped the logs and scrambled the ledges. The May was in him and the heart and spirit of youth. Sparrowhawk confessed afterwards that he kept thinking of him as a boy companion except when he saw his white hair. His hands were continually full of new treasures, now a rare fragrant violet, now with the frostings of an ant hill, again it was a wreath of wood pine from under a hemlock, or a spray of columbines from the rocks. His voice, clear and sweet, mimicked the birds. As Kipling's Solomon, he talked with butterflies. "Mr. and Mrs. Beaver must have gone away to school with their children. Their woodpile was in the back-yard, there was much evidence of their skillful engineering at their front door dam, but the shy little creatures themselves appeared not, even to greet so distinguished a friend and guest. But how the great naturalist enjoyed their work! His delicate fingers traced the marks of their teeth, his ample arms almost hugged a huge log of black birch which they had cut out and barked to the replenishment of their larder. He found a cane of their cutting and cherished it. 'It just fits me,' he said, 'this is the first cane I have had made for me entirely without the touch of human hand.'"

LT. ADAMS AGAIN FLEW OVER CITY

On Return To Mineola For Fresh Start In Big Air Race—Crowd Cheered His Nervy Conduct In Crash On Albany Landing Field.

Flying so low that it was possible to distinguish the pilot, a big army De Havilland-4, piloted by Lieutenant Benjamin Adams, son of E. G. Adams of Pine Street, passed over this city at 8:30 o'clock this morning bound for Mineola where he will leave later in the day on the first leg of the Mineola-Toronto race. Lieutenant Adams left Mineola yesterday, flying to Albany where he made a landing and owing to the rough condition of the landing field the running gear of his machine was damaged. Later the damage was repaired and this morning he left Albany for New York city following the Hudson river.

Last night Lieutenant Adams phoned his parents from Albany and stated that he had intended to make a landing at Kingston on his trip up the river Monday but was not sure of the landing grounds here and continued on to Albany. With the statement that he would return this morning and fly over Kingston the people were out early looking for the plane. On his trip up on Monday he flew over the city at a low altitude but many people who witnessed the flight did not know at the time that they were looking at one of Kingston's own aviators.

This morning, true to his word, the big De Havilland-4 came swooping down from Albany about 8:30, flying at a very low height, so low in fact that the pilot could be easily distinguished and the big number "42" on the plane was easily read. Flying lower all the time, the machine circled over the upper part of the city out over Forsyth Park and back over the Wall Street section and back over his own home—on Pine Street. Lieutenant Adams had promised to fly over his home and everyone in the neighborhood was out to welcome him this morning. As he passed over his home he waved a good morning to his folks and then circled around again at even a lower altitude the machine barely skipping the tree tops he waved a greeting to the people and was off on his trip south. In passing over his home he was at so low a height it was possible to recognize the pilot as he passed over in the bright red gliding machine.

Lieutenant Adams was one of the aviators who flew earlier in the season from Texas to Boston and was on his way back to Texas, stopping along the way at various cities in the interest of recruiting, when he was notified that he had been selected as one of the army aviators to enter the Mineola-Toronto race. Even though the winner of the race, Lieutenant Adams is not eligible to any part of the 10,000 prize which will be awarded, as all army aviators are barred from accepting the prize.

In regard to the landing on Monday at Albany the Albany Knickerbocker-Press says: "With a crash the next machine, driven by Lieutenant Ben Adams, a big D-H-4 struck the field, smashed a wheel and jumped far into the air. The sight of the broken landing gear gave the crowd a thrill. Frantic signals were given to the aviator to warn him of his danger, but he hit the field the second time, tipped far to the side, and was brought to a halt only after his plane had been turned completely around. The crowd showed their appreciation of the nervy aviator by a burst of cheering, while the officials ran to congratulate the pilot. Apparently without concern, the aviator jumped from his machine, took a glance at his broken axle and with a glad shout ran to the wrecked plane of Colonel Claggett and industriously began to take off the axle. Realizing that the aviator intended to continue the race, he was given another ovation from both officials and spectators. However, he was forced to remain at Albany until this morning."

WILSON ASKS FOR RECONSIDERATION OF STRIKE VOTE

that you will lay before them as I here state them:

Affects People More Than War.

We are face to face with a situation which is more likely to affect the happiness and prosperity, and even the life, of our people than the war itself. We have now got to do nothing less than bring our industries and our labor of every kind back to a normal basis after the greatest upheaval known in history, and the winter just ahead of us may bring suffering infinitely greater than the war brought upon us if we blunder or fall in the process.

An admirable spirit of self-sacrifice, of patriotic devotion, and of community action guided and inspired us while the fighting was on. We shall need all these now, and need them in a heightened degree if we are to accomplish the first tasks of peace. They are more difficult than the tasks of war—more complex, less easily understood—and require more intelligence, patience, and sobriety. We mobilized our man power for the fighting, let us now mobilize our brain power and our consciences for the reconstruction. If we fail it will mean national disaster.

The very first step is to increase production and facilitate transportation, so as to make up for the destruction wrought during the war, the terrible scarcities it created, and so as soon as possible relieve our people of the cruel burden of high prices. The railways are at the center of this whole process.

High Wages, Higher Living Costs.

The government has taken up with all its energy the task of bringing the profiteer to book, making the stocks of necessities in the country available at lowered prices, stimulating production and facilitating distribution, and very favorable results are already beginning to appear. There is reason to entertain the confident hope that substantial relief will result, and result in increasing measure. A general increase in the level of wages would check and might defeat all this at its very beginning. Such increases would inevitably raise, not lower, the cost of living. Manufacturers and producers of every sort would have innumerable additional pretexts for increasing profits, and all efforts to discover and defeat profiteering would be hopelessly confused.

I believe that the present efforts to reduce the costs of living will be successful, if no new elements of difficulty are thrown in the way, and I confidently count upon the men engaged in the service of the railways to assist, not obstruct. It is much more in their interest to do this than to insist upon wage increases which will undo everything the government attempts. They are good Americans along with the rest of us and may, I am sure, be counted on to see the point.

It goes without saying that if our efforts to bring the cost of living down should fail, after we have had time enough to establish either success or failure, it will of course be necessary to accept the higher costs of living as a permanent basis of adjustment, and railway wages should be readjusted along with the rest. All that I am now urging is that we should not be guilty of the inexcusable inconsistency of making general increases in wages on the assumption that the present cost of living will be permanent at the very time that we are trying with great confidence to reduce the cost of living and are able to say that it is actually beginning to fail.

I am aware that railway employees have a sense of insecurity as to the future of the railroads and have many misgivings as to whether their interests will be properly safeguarded when the present form of federal control has come to an end. No doubt it is in part this sense of uncertainty that prompts them to insist that their wage interests be adjusted now rather than under conditions which they cannot certainly foresee. But I do not think that their uneasiness is well grounded.

I anticipate that legislation dealing with the future of the railroads will in explicit terms afford adequate protection for the interests of the employees of the roads, but quite apart from that it is clear that no legislation can make the railroads other than what they are, a great public interest, and it is not likely that the president of the United States, whether in possession and control of the railroads or not, will lack opportunity or persuasive force to influence the decision of questions arising between the managers of the railroads and the railway employees. The employees may rest assured that during my term of office, whether I am in actual possession of the railroads or not, I shall not fail to exert the full influence of the executive to see that justice is done them.

I believe, therefore, that they may be justified in the confidence that hearty co-operation with the government now in its effort to reduce the cost of living will by no means be prejudicial to their own interests, but will, on the contrary, prepare the way for more favorable and satisfactory relations in the future.

I confidently count on their co-operation in this time of national test and crisis.

A Perfect Arm.

The proportions of the perfect arm in a woman of about 5 feet 5 inches are as follows: The circumference of the upper arm should be about 13 inches, that of the fore arm 9 inches and of the wrist 6 inches. The upper arm should be somewhat shorter than the forearm.

To Preserve Letters.

The following method of preserving the legibility of pencil writing is valuable: Stamp the letter until quite dim, then brush over with a solution composed of equal parts of milk and water. Hang it up until nearly dry. Then press it between two sheets of blotting paper with a hot iron.

What Fowler Is.

Fowler is an alloy of tin and usually antimony, copper and bismuth for the best qualities of pewter, and lead for the inferior kind. The tin always predominates, and the proportion is largest in the best pewter. One hundred parts of tin to eight of antimony, four of copper and one of bismuth are given as the proportions of good ware.

One Common Tongue.

"There was one word," wrote an American Red Cross nurse serving in a French army hospital, "that we quickly learned in the languages. It was the word that came most often to the lips of sick or wounded soldiers when suffering or children crying utterance from them. It is Mother, mother, mother, mother and mother."

Women Doctors.

It was in 1849 that the London School of Medicine for Women was founded. This was the first of its kind. Shortly afterward women were allowed to take the medical degree of the Universities of Dublin, London and Durham. But it has been in more recent years that the fair sex in large numbers have ventured to practice.

The Joy of My Baby's Health

THAT baby of mine radiates health and happiness like a little roll of sunshine! I never knew how easy it was to take care of a perfectly well baby. Why, he takes care of himself! He just lies in his crib all day and smiles dreamily at the world, and gets sturdier, it seems to me, every minute.

It calls because of his food. We used to have so much trouble with milk, until I found I couldn't nurse him!

And then my mother told me that I had been brought up on Nestlé's Milk Food when I was little—so we tried it.

It is really just pure milk, you know, only changed into powder so the tough curds are broken up and it is easier to digest. And it is more nourishing, too, because they add just the right amount of sugar and cereal. All I do is add pure water and boil a minute—and my baby is safe and well.

I know that if your baby has trouble with his food, the Nestlé Company will be glad to help you. They will send you free, as they sent me, a big Mother's Book on how to take care of your baby, and enough Nestlé's Food for twelve feedings. All you have to do is to fill out and send the coupon. Then you can be, with me, the happiest woman in the world—because your baby is well.

Nestlé's is pure milk in powder form that is already modified and does not require the further addition of milk. Always pure and safe, always uniform, and free from the dangers of home modification. Nestlé's has stood the test of three generations and has today the largest sale of any baby food in the world.

FREE! Enough Nestlé's for 12 feedings. Send the coupon.

GLASCO.

Glasco, Aug. 25.—A missing link in the record of events in our usual quiet neighborhood was caused by the non-appearance of a broget that should have appeared in last Tuesday's Freeman. It was probably lost in transit.

Cook Ward Brethaupt of the famous fighting first division, arrived home on Saturday evening. He landed at Hoboken last Sunday, the 17th and went from there to Camp Dix where he received his honorable discharge. He is entitled to wear the victory medal with four clasps, representing the four big battles in which he fought, St. Mihiel, Chateau Thierry, Argonne and the Meuse.

City authorities and industrial centers now propose to reclaim the daylight saving and let the country districts go back to the old time. But what about the confusion that will result from such a mix up to railroad and steamboat time tables. Better suffer the ill we have, than fly to those we know not of.

The automobiles running between Saucier and Kingston, via Glasco, are overcrowded on many trips these August days. Summer boarders in cruise the congestion.

Mrs. Elsie Ten Broeck spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Frank Schuster, at the bungalow at Fish Creek.

Mrs. William McElroy and son, William, Mrs. Bert Jones and Mrs. Edward McElroy all of Brooklyn, are visiting in Glasco.

Mrs. Mary Weeks of 53 Downs street, Kingston, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Matthews, over Sunday and attended the morning service at the M. E. Church.

Washington Iron Works Company have completed a good job of putting a coat of tar and gravel on the village streets.

A Light and Power Plant That Starts and Stops Itself

A New Electric Unit for Farm and Home

The Owen Light & Power Plant is automatic. It controls itself. It frees you from constant care. No need to go to the cellar to turn it on or off.

You merely supply the fuel—periodically. When the batteries are discharged, the engine starts automatically. When they are charged, it stops automatically. When you require more current than the charging can care for, the engine starts to assist automatically. And if you should forget to supply fuel, no damage is done. Even the lubrication is automatic.

This is a bigger-capacity plant than usual. It will light 1 to 100 lamps without the slightest flicker. And handle electric irons, toasters, etc.

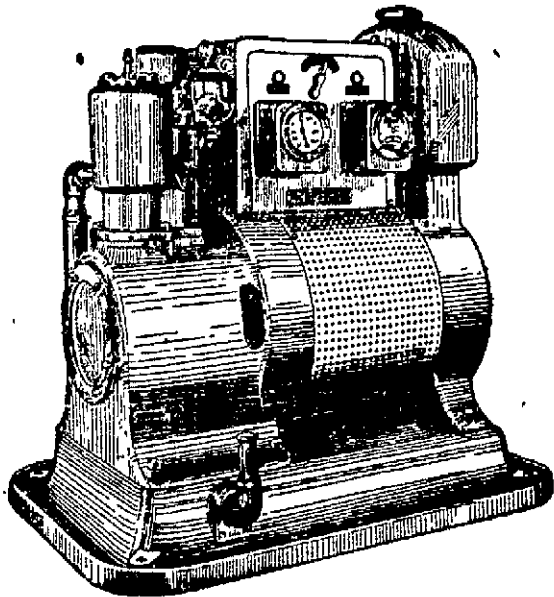

The Owen will run electric motors up to 1½ horsepower—for running water, washing machine, churn, sewing machine motor, milking machines, cream separators, and similar devices.

It is powerful enough to handle all the needs of even the large farm. You will not be disappointed later, or feel that it must be replaced with a larger plant.

This is the most advanced light and power unit yet produced, having dozens of betterments. It is the result of years of experimenting. A better plant can't be bought. And it affords more power per dollar.

Every troublesome idea is absent in The Owen. A simplified engine does away with the usual complaints. And simplified, automatic control does away with constant attention.

You should be familiar with all the new features of this amazing invention.

BOY SCOUTS' LIVELY TIME

Arrive in Lake Katrine to Find Tents and Equipment Gone Astray—Coroner Kelly and Mayor Canfield to The Rescue—They spent Night in Armory.

Monday night seventy-nine Boy Scouts of Bridgeton, N. J., alighted from the 7:30 o'clock West Shore station at Katrine expecting to spend the night under their tents at Lake Katrine, only to find that their equipment had gone astray. The tents and other baggage were in a car that had been switched off at Mt. Marion.

Fortunately for the Boy Scouts, spending the night in the open was avoided through the work of E. A. Kelly, manager of Winter's express, who was at Katrine, having been engaged to deliver the equipment from the station to the proposed camp site. Coroner Kelly got in touch with Mayor Canfield, who was attending the Welcome Home Day committee meeting at the city hall, and through the mayor secured permission to use a number of mattresses that were stored on the third floor of the city hall.

The coroner also obtained permission for the boys to occupy the state armory for the night, and brought the Boy Scouts to Kingston in two auto trucks. First the trip was made to the city hall where the Boy Scouts climbed the stairs and carried the mattresses down and loaded them on the trucks.

Edward Fitzgerald and Charles Dixon at the armory helped make the boys comfortable, and after getting things to rights the boys made a hasty visit to nearby lunch rooms to stock up.

While at Katrine the boys were offered the use of the Grange Hall but there was no sleeping accommodations. Dr. A. C. Gates, who has a farm there suggested the use of his barn, but Scout Master Owen in charge was unwilling to take advantage of Dr. Gates's good nature.

The Boy Scouts left on the early train this morning for Katrine, and expected to find their tents and equipment ready for them to set up.

About the Diamond.

The diamond is the hardest stone known. Its name (French, diamond) is derived from the Greek adamas—unconquerable. The word was probably attached to the stone because it conveyed the idea of invincible hardness. No acid will scar it; no solvent will dissolve it. Acres may pass without dimming the luster of its adamantine face.

PRESIDENCY OF FRENCH REPUBLIC NOT FOR FOCH

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Paris, Aug. 26.—Contrary to rumors that have been persistently circulated in Paris ever since the armistice was signed, it is now possible to state authoritatively that Marshal Foch, the world's greatest soldier and France's most distinguished citizen, will not be a candidate for the presidency of France next year.

President Poincaré's term of office, which began in 1913, will expire in December. His successor will be elected by the national assembly (the senate and chamber of deputies sitting jointly) at Versailles.

Marshal Foch, as president of the republic, would be popular with the people, but would upset political lines. The marshal is adverse to politics and gets his chief pleasure in living quietly on his farm with his grandchildren.

Students of political condition believe that M. Poincaré's successor most likely will be Paul Deschanel, president of the chamber of deputies. M. Deschanel is married to an American girl, (a former Miss Brier), so if he goes to the Elysée Palace, as he is expected, France will have an American "president" for the first time.

Other presidential possibilities that have loomed up lately are M. Poincaré for a second term, Premier Clemenceau and Antin Dubost. M. Poincaré has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election although he will get back in political life in the senate. M. Clemenceau as premier is one thing, but M. Clemenceau at the Elysée Palace is another and it is doubtful if he could obtain a majority at Versailles. Aside from the fact that he is a "strong man" of the type free electric trough as striking members of that company are members of his own unwillingness to run. M. Dubost is also too old.

Marshal Foch now makes a daily tour of his farm, looking over the harvesting, and he spends a lot of time in his home garden. He dresses in an ordinary lounge suit with leggings and his headgear is an old, worn, black, when Field Marshal first gave him.

"I am here for the simple life," the marshal tells his visitors. "I arise at 5.30 in the morning, take a walk around my gardens and then have to look over my mail. Then afterwards, I take my cap and visit my farm. In the afternoon I look in on old and very dear friends of mine in this section, or motor to the sea which is only ten miles away. In the evening I again look over my mail."

"Ah, but this is the life after the worry and of the past four years. My happiest moments now are those with which I spend with my grand children the sons and daughters of my son and son-in-law, but who, alas, were killed with many other the young fellows."

The four children call the great soldier "papa."

"And after," adds the marshal reflectively, "doesn't that go more to the heart than the grandiloquent 'monseigneur le maréchal' I hear so often?"

Seek Return Bout.

Fred Whitmore, manager of the Huxley Athletic Club of Poughkeepsie, is in Kingston Monday seeking to stage a return bout between Vincent Coffey of this city and Willie Christy, who boxed recently here last June. Coffey's hand is still in bad shape, but he is willing to go on again as soon as it is healed.

Auto Kills Child.

Running out from an automobile that was parked on the east side of South Clinton street, Poughkeepsie, Sunday, Margaret Owens, age six years, ran directly in front of an automobile driven by Philip S. Smith of Washington, D. C. She sustained a crushed skull and died a few minutes later.

COAST RAILROAD STRIKE CRITICAL

Brotherhood Heads Unable to Get Men Back to Work and Cities Face Shortage of Supplies — Roads Practically at Standstill.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 26.—"All traffic over the Santa Fe between Barstow and San Francisco is now tied up." It was announced at the office of A. G. Wells, general manager of the Santa Fe today. "The walkout of the yardmen at Baker field and at Barstow this morning has so crippled traffic that we cannot move trains in any direction."

The Southern Pacific lines at 10.15 o'clock this morning were completely tied up in California south of San Luis Obispo on the coast line, Fresno on the valley line and west of Yuma, Ariz.

At the Salt Lake office it was announced: "No change in complete tie up on main line trains between Los Angeles and Salt Lake City, but local trains are being run in Nevada and Utah."

Hourly the situation becomes more critical with Los Angeles and other cities facing a shortage of supplies. Ordinarily moved over rail, hundreds of persons are stranded here and at various points in Southern California, unable to reach their destinations.

Instructions from national heads of the railroad's trainmen's and engine-men's brotherhoods to Pacific coast members of the brotherhoods to "call out their contracts" have not changed the situation. The trainmen who walked out in sympathy with striking Pacific electric and Los Angeles street railway men have announced that they will stay out until the strike is satisfactorily adjusted. They declare they will not move Pacific electric freight as striking members of that company are members of their brotherhoods.

TWO KILLED IN CRASH.

Motorcycle and Auto Collide Near Malden.

Earl Sinsapough of Glenside, had his left arm broken in three places and Miss Clara Knabark, also of Glenside, was severely bruised, in an automobile-motorcycle crash Saturday afternoon. The injured were taken to Dr. R. W. Gibbard's office and after being X-rayed were brought to the Benedictine sanatorium for treatment.

The accident happened at the junction of the Malden-Catskill roads, near Calvin Cady's place, and it was asserted that a large automobile coming in an opposite direction, without sounding its horn, plumped out the motorcycle with sidecar attached without warning and the impact killed.

Sinsapough's motorcycle was badly damaged, and he and Miss Knabark, who was riding in the sidecar, were hurled out and suffered the injuries aforementioned. The automobile party's names were not learned.

More About the Block Party.

Here are two things which everybody should know about the coming block party. In the first place if you want ice cream, and of course you will, and if you are in a hurry to keep a date for the next dance or to join your auto party, you can buy your ice cream in cones and need not wait to be served at a table. On the other hand if you have plenty of time at your disposal and want to watch the fun, you can be comfortably seated at a table and enjoy your ice cream and cake as you are served by some pretty girl. One of the features of the block party which always means no end of fun will be a real "honest-to-goodness" fortune teller. No matter what other fortune tellers have told you, this one will have something new.

SWIMMING AT

The afternoon boys' exhibition will be a straight swimming meet and will start at 1:30 o'clock. Only men and boys will be admitted as spectators.

The prize winners in the various events will be awarded playground ribbons.

DR. FULLER ILL.

Wurts Street Pastor Going to N. Y. for Treatment.

Dr. and Mrs. Fuller surprised the congregation last Sunday at the Wurts Street Baptist Church by returning a week early and being present at the morning worship. At the close of the service Dr. Fuller explained why they had returned. He told his people that after securing most careful medical advice, both here and in New York, it seemed best for him to spend a few weeks in a hospital. He expects, if a suitable room can be secured, to leave the last of next week for the Hahnemann Hospital, New York city, where he will be under the care of Dr. Sprague Carleton.

The church granted leave of absence for such length of time as may be necessary. The work of the church will be well looked after in Dr. Fuller's absence as Rev. R. P. Ingersoll, who has most acceptably supplied the pulpit during August, has consented to take charge until Dr. Fuller is able to return. The different organizations of the church will arrange in turn to look after the mid-week service when Mr. Ingersoll is unable to be present. At the close the congregation gathered around their pastor and assured him of their sympathy and prayers, and hoped for his speedy recovery and return to his work in Kingston.

HUDSON MAN DROWNS.

Body Picked Up in River Near Atlas Cement Company Slip.

The body of William F. Brown, a well known resident of Hudson, was found floating in the river in front of the Atlas Cement Company slip shortly before 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon by James Ryan and John Elgo, foremen at the cement company packing plant. Coroner Samuel T. Hudson was notified and the remains were taken to the undertaking rooms of M. E. Brennan.

The body had evidently been in the water for several days although the police had received no report he was missing and no one could be found by the coroner to give any light on the mystery as to how the deceased met his death.

No marks of any violence were found on the body and it is the opinion that death was due to drowning. Brown was last seen in the lower part of the city Thursday night. Shortly after that the heavy electrical storm came. One theory was advanced that during the storm he became terrified and fell off a dock on the river front. The deceased was about 38 years of age.

EMILY ANDERSON
MARDIGRAS QUEEN

Wins Popular Girl Contest, Which Closed Monday Evening at Kingston Point—She Will Be Crowned and Presented with Diamond Ring Tonight.

Miss Emily Anderson by polling 26,552 votes in the Popular Girl contest which closed at 9:30 o'clock Monday evening won not only the contest and the diamond ring, but the honor of being crowned queen of Kingston's first Mardi Gras. The crowning of the queen will take place at 8:45 o'clock this evening on the platform near Major Diamond's Hoop-La stand.

The voting box was closed promptly Monday evening and the judges, Judge Harry Schirick, Thomas J. Comerford, Leo F. Herbert, and Harold L. Van Deusen, promptly set to work to cast up the large number of votes. There was some question over a vote that had been cast for Miss Vollmer which was deposited after 9:30 o'clock, and the judges decided to eliminate that vote from the result. The ballot called for 300 votes, and the money was returned to the one who voted it. If it had been counted it would have made no change in the final results, but the judges ruled it would not be fair to the other contestants to count it.

It was 11 o'clock before it was possible to announce the final results which were as follows:

Miss Emily Anderson, 26,552 votes.
Miss Clara Vollmer, 24,016 votes.
Miss Hazel Blackwell, 13,212 votes.

The winner, Miss Anderson, is a very pretty blond, and bore her honors well.

Following the announcement of the winning of the Popular Girl contest the crowd proceeded to the Oriental Hotel where Dare Devil Harry Sills gave another performance.

This evening after the queen is crowned Miss Vollmer will be awarded a gold wrist watch for second place, and Miss Blackwell a gold bracelet for third place. The diamond ring won by Miss Anderson is valued at $100.
